ADVENTURES TO GO – GENERAL INFORMATION

Trip Availability: All trips are open to Santa Clara residents and non-residents, age 50 plus. Priority registration is given to residents for new trips released after Let's Talk Travel on the fourth Wednesday of the month; non-residents can register on the following Monday. Waitlists are created once trips fill; those on the waitlist are called as spaces become available. Trips not reaching the minimum enrollment required will be canceled.

Senior Center Registration Form: Travelers are required to complete a Senior Center registration form and sign a liability release each calendar year prior to participation in the Adventures to Go travel program.

Trip Attendance: Only those officially registered for a trip may attend. Participant substitutions are not allowed at time of check-in on day of trip. All travelers must register in advance at the Santa Clara Senior Center and have a current registration form on file.

Refund Policy:

- Day/Extended Trips – Please choose wisely. Refunds will ONLY be provided when a replacement can be found from the ATG trip waitlist, through the procedures outlined under "Traveler Replacement" in the Guidelines for Use, or the trip is cancelled by the Senior Center.
- Travel Insurance – The Santa Clara Senior Center recommends you consider travel insurance, especially for extended trips. Check online at: http://www.insuremytrip.com, with Kanen Tours, AAA, or an insurance provider of your preference.

Trip/Meal Substitutions: Trip itineraries may be modified due to unforeseen circumstances. Every effort will be made to replace the location and/or activity with one that is similar. Refunds are not guaranteed should there be a change in itinerary. Hosted meals may be modified at the discretion of the restaurant.

Trip Activity Levels/Special Needs: Activity levels listed are offered as a guideline. Travelers with accessibility concerns, special needs, or questions should contact the Travel Administrator.

Trip Pick-Up/Drop-Off: Trips leave from and return to the old police station parking lot, near the corner of Lincoln Avenue and 1541 Civic Center Drive, in Santa Clara. Please arrive at least 15 minutes before trip departure for check-in; 30 minutes for overnight trips. Motor coach will leave promptly at time specified. Please note: During a trip, if a situation (urgent or non-urgent) arises where you are unable to meet-up with your "travel group" at the pre-designated time and place identified by the tour escort(s), it will be your responsibility and expense to make arrangements to get yourself home. This would also apply to any other traveler who may decide to stay with you. A tour escort is not able to stay behind with you for any situation that may occur.

Gratuities: Trip fees include a modest gratuity for the driver of the motor coach and servers at hosted meals. When you experience exceptional service, you may choose to tip an additional amount. City of Santa Clara employees and tour escorts cannot accept gratuities.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): For more information, please see page 10.

Dragon Slayers No. 52877 Thursday, May 8

$66 per person

Activity level: MEDIUM – approx. 45 minute drive each way; periods of walking, standing, and sitting. Wear good walking shoes and dress in layers. Bring a lunch or purchase lunch.

We're return to Dragon Slayers with two, 24 passenger buses! River's Crest Dragon Slayers in Aptos is an innovative, animal therapy program for physically challenged children and adults, using rare and unusual animals as a medium. Teaching self-confidence, awareness and conservation, Dragon Slayers has served the physically-challenged community for over 35 years. A visit to this one-of-a-kind facility offers unmatched learning opportunities and lots of fun! During the 90-minute tour, you'll interact with animals from all over the world, and meet incredible people who share their lives with these wonderful creatures. Meet, touch and learn about animals: including emu, camel, zebra, miniature Brahma bull family, llama, giant African tortoises, miniature horses and donkeys, a wide array of unusual birds, and many more animal residents. Afterward enjoy free time (no host lunch) in downtown Capitola-by-the-Sea. Explore the shops, galleries, and museum in downtown Capitola with time for lunch on your own.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 9:00 AM and returns at approximately 4:00 PM.

Petaluma River Cruise & Historic Museum No. 52878 Friday, May 16

$125 per person

Activity level: MEDIUM– approx. 1 & 1/2 hour drive each way; extended periods of sitting. Long periods of walking and standing. Wear good walking shoes and dress in layers.

Join Ronn Patterson and Dolphin Charters for a 3 hour narrated trip on the Petaluma River. View the commercial and industrial aspects of this waterway as we depart the Petaluma Turning Basin in the downtown area, head downriver and soon enter a different world as the boat winds its way through the meadows and oxbows of this wetlands area towards the mouth of the river. Learn about the history and importance of the river to the town of Petaluma and the surrounding countryside. Look around you (especially if you bring binoculars) to see the birds and wildlife that inhabits this special region as we cruise on our downriver and return journey. A hosted lunch aboard the boat will include a sandwich choice of Roast Beef with Provolone, Smoked Turkey, Pesto and Provolone, or Seafood Salad. Lunch includes fresh fruit, Caesar salad, beverage and dessert. The afternoon will include a docent led tour of the Petaluma Historical Library and Museum. The period-costumed docent will take a group on a journey through the rich history including dairy and poultry farming, Mi-Wok Indians, and the stately building itself.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 8:00 AM and returns at approximately 5:00 PM.

Show Boat at SF Opera No. 53033 Sunday, June 22
$175 per person
Activity level: MEDIUM – approx. 1 hour drive each way; long periods of sitting.

A classic of American musical theater, this tale of life on the Mississippi from the 1880s to the 1920s is both a love story and a powerful reminder of the bitter legacy of racism. Director Francesca Zambello's grand-scale production is "a triumph—a stylish, fast-paced and colorful show that had the audience on its feet, cheering loud and long" (Chicago Classical Review). The Jerome Kern-Oscar Hammerstein II score, which includes such classics as "Ol' Man River," "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man" and "Make Believe," will sound glorious "under the authoritative baton of music-theater maestro John DeMain" (Chicago Tribune). Travelers will have the option of a pre-opera talk in the theater. Enjoy lunch at Max's Opera Café, before the show, with your choice of Caesar Salad with Chicken, BBQ Pork Wrap & French Fries, Corned Beef or Turkey Sandwich served on rye with coleslaw, or Vegetarian Roma Pasta. A non-alcoholic beverage and light dessert are included.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 10:00 AM and returns at approximately 6:45 PM.

Almaden Quicksilver Park No. 53034 Thursday, June 26
$67 per person

Activity level: HIGH – approx. 30 minute drive each way. 1.6 mile, mostly level, guided outdoor walk. Wear good walking shoes, dress in layers and bring sunblock.

Almaden Quicksilver Park situated in south San Jose is a 4.1 acre park that includes the grounds of former mercury mines. We'll visit the Mining Museum for a docent led tour, enjoy a picnic lunch, and take a guided history walk. The Museum presents visitors with an array of exhibits about the history of mercury mining and the lifestyles of mining communities at New Almaden. A mine diorama duplicates the interior of a mine shaft, giving the visitors a feel for working underground. Other exhibits explain the changing technology of how the liquid mercury was extracted from the mined cinnabar ore. Artifacts from Cornish, Mexican, and Chinese mining families depict the diversity of people that once lived and worked together on 'the hill'. Then, the group will take a visit to Casa Grande's antique-furnished parlor, library and drawing room which reflect the lifestyles of a mine manager's family. The picnic box lunch includes a sandwich choice of Turkey, Ham, Roast Beef or Veggie, side salad, cookies, fresh fruit, and bottled water.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 9:00 AM and returns at approximately 3:00 PM.

ONCE at the Curran No. 53035 Wednesday, July 9
$131 per person

Activity level: MEDIUM – approx. 1 hour drive each way; long periods of sitting. Must be able to walk one flight of stairs. Eat before arrival or bring a lunch to eat on the motor coach. No lunch or stop for lunch provided.

Winner of eight 2012 Tony Awards including Best Musical, ONCE is a truly original Broadway experience. Featuring an impressive ensemble of actor/musicians who play their own instruments onstage, ONCE tells the enchanting tale of a Dublin street musician who's about to give up on his dream when a beautiful young woman takes a sudden interest in his haunting love songs. As the chemistry between them grows, his music soars to powerful new heights, but their unlikely connection turns out to be deeper and more complex than your everyday romance. Emotionally captivating and theatrically breathtaking, ONCE draws you in from the very first note and never lets go. It's an unforgettable story about going for your dreams and the power of music to connect us all.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 11:15 AM and returns at approximately 6:00 PM.

SF Giants vs. Oakland A's No. 53036 Thursday, July 10
$103 per person

Activity level: MEDIUM – approx. 1 1/4 hour drive each way; extended periods of walking and sitting. Wear good walking shoes and layered clothing. Seats may experience prolonged instances of sun exposure.

Witness the Battle of the Bay as the San Francisco Giants face the Oakland A's at AT&T Park! We will arrive at the ballpark early to give you plenty of time to explore the area and purchase food before the game begins. We will be dropped off and picked up at the entrance near the Orlando Cepeda statue for easy access to and from our lower box seats located along left field. Game time is subject to change for television coverage; you will be notified if game time changes.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 9:45 AM and returns at approximately 6:00 PM.

Filoli, Buck's, & Allied Arts No. 53065 Tuesday, July 15
$95 per person

Activity level: MEDIUM – Long periods of walking and standing. Wear layers.

Filoli welcomes the public to this remarkable 654–acre property, including the 36,000 square foot Georgian country house and spectacular 16–acre English Renaissance garden. Recognized as one of the finest remaining country estates of the early 20th century, Filoli is a site of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and is dedicated to the preservation, interpretation and stewardship of the estate's cultural traditions and natural history. Businessman William Bourn named his estate by combining the first two letters from the key words of his credo: "Fight for a just cause; Love your fellow man; Live a good life." The leisurely, two-hour, docent-led walk allows for one hour in the home and one hour in the gardens. Limited time will be available for the gift shop.

Much has been made of the venture capitalist clientele that frequents Buck's of Woodside, a carnival of a coffee shop in rural Woodside. The walls and ceiling are festooned with trinkets, Americana and tech memorabilia that will keep you entertained as you eat. This iconic Silicon Valley restaurant is home to some of the biggest deals and brightest ideas the valley has ever seen. Menu choices include: Buck's Cheese Burger with fries, Club Sandwich with fries, or New Mexico BBQ Chicken Salad and a non-alcoholic beverage.

Allied Arts Guild is a beautiful and historic garden oasis, home to unique shops, and artists' studios. Since 1929, Allied Arts Guild has provided an inspiring environment for working artists, beautiful gardens and shops for visitors, and support for the Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. Travelers will have free time to walk the grounds and shop.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 9:15 AM and returns at approximately 5:15 PM.

Tour the beautiful grounds of Filoli Gardens (L), enjoy the food and sights at Buck's of Woodside (M), and shop among the beautiful architecture at the Allied Arts Guild in Menlo Park (R).

Pageant of the Masters No. 51845 Tuesday-Thursday, July 22-24
$637 Double Occupancy; $796 Single Occupancy
Activity level: MEDIUM/HIGH – approx. 9 hour drive each way; extended periods of walking and sitting. Wear good walking shoes and layered clothing. Blankets and binoculars are recommended for the Pageant of the Masters performance.

Laguna Beach's Pageant of the Masters is an extraordinary whimsical adventure as real people recreate famous works of art by posing in an outdoor amphitheater with a live orchestra, original score, live narration, intricate sets and sophisticated lighting. This visual feast and its preparatory lectures are the culmination of a program that traces Southern California's multi-cultural history through the creativity of its many peoples. The 2014 theme, "The Art Detective," will reveal how lost treasures were discovered, where crimes of passion were uncovered (or covered up) and how creative riddles were unraveled, with a gallery of great masterpieces providing the clues! The stories and revelations are sure to provide fun for everyone and be anything but elementary. We depart on Tuesday, via Royal Coach motor coach, for Newport Beach, our hotel accommodations, and a hosted, waterfront dinner. The Holiday Inn Express Newport Beach is located on historic Mariner's Mile and within walking distance to a variety of excellent restaurants, shops and entertainment venues, and, of course, the ocean! Wednesday is filled with exciting activities and memorable experiences including: the Sawdust Art Festival where you are invited to shop along sawdust-covered paths through a hand-crafted village of fine arts and superb craftsmanship, the Festival of Arts walking tour where we'll learn about mediums and processes that make each artist's works unique, hosted dinner at Tivoli Gardens, and the Pageant of the Masters evening, outdoor performance! On tour days to and from Newport Beach, rest stops will be provided for your comfort. Detailed itinerary and menu options will be provided in Spring 2014.

- Motor coach leaves promptly at 7:30 AM on Tuesday and returns at approximately 7:30 PM on Thursday.

Visitors enjoy the Sawdust Festival exhibitors (L). Volunteers get into position for Pageant of the Masters (R).
